As previously disclosed, an executive committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an independent investigation, to be overseen by the Audit Committee, related to: whether Company management had the proper authorization to issue certain convertible notes and the related shares issuable upon conversion of these convertible notes, as well as certain other debt instruments and equity transactions; issues related to the accounting for and disclosure of certain expenses incurred by management; and the appropriateness and disclosure of certain related party transactions.

As a result of these developments, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures to be included in the Form 10-K, to have them properly certified by its principal executive officers, and reviewed by its independent registered public accounting firm in order to timely file the Form 10-K.
